forced them back into their vehicle at gunpoint. The victims were forced to drive north on Hartford, East on 17th and South on Noe while one of the suspects continued to pistol whip the driver of the vehicle causing severe injuries. The suspects finally exited the vehicle on Noe Street and fled in an unknown direction.

One victim suffered a fractured skull and was hospitalized for a few days but is expected to make a full recovery.

It is believed at least one of the suspects would have been covered in the blood of one of their victims during their escape.
